Students Meet Death In Canoeing Accident

Last Saturday afternoon two students at this university met death as the result of a canoe upset at Mendum's Pond in Barrington. These men were Robert Newell, 24, and Robert Monroe, 21, both of Theta Chi. Both of these veterans resided in Massachusetts.

After several hours search Saturday, the overturned canoe was found blown against one of the islands in the pond, and it was then obvious to the searchers that the two men were somewhere in the pond. Volunteers started to drag the pond with boats and grappling hooks, but until late Monday night, no trace of the bodies had been found. Monroe and Newell were on a picnic with John Atwood, also of Theta Chi, and Judy Hill, Doris Lusignan, and Esther Cole, students here. Earlier, Atwood and one of the girls had been out in the canoe, but soon turned back when Atwood found the water to be too rough and choppy to be safe for a canoe. However, when they returned, the two men decided to try it. They were last seen paddling between two of the islands about 4:30.

Later, when the pair could not be seen from the shore, the other members of the party assumed that the canoe was still behind one of the various islands in the pond. When they had not returned at five o'clock, those on shore became alarmed, and walked the entire perimeter of the lake, thinking that the craft might have been beached on another shore of the pond. Failing to find the men, they returned to campus and notified university authorities and Chief Bourgoin. The State Police were notified, a search was organized and a boat secured.

Atwood reported that the two students were good swimmers, but the low temperature of the water precluded the possibility of anyone swimming any distance in it. When the canoe was found there was a coating of ice on it where the water had lapped against it.

Both men were juniors here, Monroe in electrical engineering and Newell in hotel administration.

Discussions Open Religious Week

Religious Emphasis Week will be held on campus from April 28 through May 3. The University Religious Council has announced the general topic "Religion and Life" for this year's session.

Rev. A. J. Muste is executive secretary of the Fellowship of Reconciliation in the United States. His varied career has also included such positions as minister, educator, writer, and labor leader.

Tuesday evening's activities will feature discussions in dormitories, led by competent men and women of all faiths.

'Father Malachy' Farce Pre-War Broadway Hit

Fraser New Head Of Student Council

At the all-male convocation held at the Field House last Thursday, Woody Fraser was elected President of Student Council via secret ballot.

Woody, editor of the "Granite," and holder of the second ranking campus position at first declined to accept the presidency. Under university rules, students are limited to the number of offices they can hold.

At a conference with Dean Medesy, however, Woody was given permission to hold the presidency and editorship. Council president carries a rating of 12 points and the editorship, 10 points.

Woody, who is also president of the Lens and Shutter Club and vice-president of the Wildcat Flying club, succeeds Donald F. Perkins.

Other seniors-to-be elected were Fred Kuss and Arthur Massucco. Among the junior class candidates elected were James J. Powers (vice president), Burton E. Nichols, and Carmen Ragonese.

Joseph Duffy became Secretary-treasurer by virtue of garnering the largest number of votes among candidates from the freshman class. George Gilman and Bruce Mather also were elected. Peter Janetos was voted in as representative of the Commuters.

Pandemonium Here Saturday, May 3

Once more pandemonium will break loose, the campus will be infiltrated with dashing seniors and dark-eyed senoritas, and New Hampshire Hall will don a festive spirit. Yes, the night of May 3 will see the third annual Pan American Pandemonium. Sponsored by Lambda Pi, the honorary language society, Pan-American Pandemonium has proved to be in past years a gala evening and all reports of this year's doings seem to be living up to its standards.

There will be the usual booths and easy-to-win games with prizes for all, ice cream to lick and ginger ale to guzzle. Mysterious fortune tellers will gaze into the future if you cross their palms with silver. There'll even be a stage show crammed with songsters including the popular faculty quintette, South American dancers (identity as yet undisclosed), and featuring the presentation of door prizes to the lucky ticket holders. And just to top the evening off, there will be dancing until 11:45 — for juniors and seniors, that is.

Chairmen of committees responsible for the evening's gaiety are: Booths, Jinx Creeden; Refreshments, Priscilla Nyman; Decorations, Isabelle Richards; Publicity, Anna Cooke; Entertainment, Hector Chatrain; Properties, Charles Yeaton; Prizes, Helen Hobson; and Posters, Joan Flint.

We, the editors of the Greek World, wish to express our deepest sympathies to the members of Theta Chi on the unfortunate loss of their two brothers this last weekend. Paul Briand and Rae Cabrera

"Father Malachy's Miracle," one of the most delightful fantastic comedies of pre-war days, will be presented in Murkland Auditorium Thursday evening, May 1, at 8 o'clock. This Broadway hit of the 1938 season will be staged here under the sponsorship of the Newman Club. Jeanmary Durant, who has appeared in many UNH productions, is directing. Richard Horan, veteran back-stage worker, is production manager. Reliable "news and gossip gathered on the Rialto campus" tells us that a large group of local thespians and artists will be responsible for an evening of splendid entertainment.

"Father Malachy's Miracle" dramatizes in amusing, touching fashion the successful effort of a Benedictine monk to bring about a miracle in a modern city in Scotland. In order to convince a skeptical cleric, Father Malachy causes an offending night club to disappear from its place and to reappear at a distant point. The miracle is acclaimed but many practical problems lead to comic embarrassment and sensational results.

Appearing in the cast are Frank Robie as Father Malachy; James Doon as Peter; Herbert Cummings as Andrew Gillespie; Frank Grabowski as Canon Geoghegan; Donald Donovan as Father Flaherty; Arline Karpinski as Annie; Edward Galvin as Bishop Gillespie; Doris Beaulieu as Peggy; Michael O'Connell as George Bleater; Francis Tremblay as Jim Bell; Frank Blair as Rev. Mr. Hamilton; Phyllis Karpinski as Mrs. McNab; Leo Redfern as Mac; Edwina Mayo as Gertie Gill; Gordon Rines as Archie; Ralph Connors as Timothy Battle; Mary Cote as Nora; Donald Chapman as Cardinal Vassena; Normand Dumont as Sir James; Nancy Duran as Lady Pam; Charles Haug as Sam Hicks; Madeline Fournier as Mary Lou; James McManus as Constable; Thomas Brannen as Barman, and Richard Brouillard as the Waiter.

Prize Will Be Given For Patriotic Essay

A $75 prize contest for essays on patriotism has just been announced by the Patriotic Service Committee of the National Society of Colonial Dames in America in the State of New Hampshire. This contest is open to all regular undergraduate students at the University. All entries must be delivered to Professor Norman Alexander, head of the department of government, at Room 212 or 206 in Morrill Hall by May 12.

Contest terms as follows were announced by Mrs. Annie Edgerly Thayer of Farmington, committee chairman. Prizes will be $60 for the best essay and $15 for the second best. Essays must be at least 1500 words in length and must be typed double-space on standard typewriter paper.

Judges will be Mrs. Charles C. Goss of Dover, honorary president of the Colonial Dames; Professor Alexander; and Professor Sylvester H. Bingham, head of the department of English. Winners will be announced at the Honors Convocation on May 22.

The men of Theta Chi wish to express their gratitude for the help they have received during their great loss.

Let's See Some Action!

In the last issue of this paper an editorial was written stressing the need for higher pay for people in the teaching profession. The editorial mentioned raises for teachers employed in the primary and secondary schools in and around Boston. Teachers have been striking all over the country because of their desire to get increased wages which would equal the increased costs of living.

Mainly these recent strikes and demands have been made by teachers in the primary and secondary schools, and not by teachers working in colleges and universities throughout the country. Recently a petition was drawn up and signed by a majority of the faculty on this campus asking for increased wages to aid them in meeting the increased costs of living. This petition possibly will be turned over to the trustees for consideration.

This step taken by the faculty on the UNH campus is one which will or should be taken by faculties on other campuses. There is no reason why college professors shouldn't crusade for the purpose of bettering their lives even though some professors consider such a step a little beneath them. After all, a professor's title may be distinctive, but he can't live on a lower pay than that of a grade school teacher.

Congratulations Men!

Our congratulations to the men of our student body for their excellent support of the recent Student Council elections. This is the first time in many years that the council has been chosen by a majority vote.

There should be no "gripe" on the part of the student body as to the qualifications of any of the newly elected members of the council, as they were elected by the majority. No one has any reason to think that the slate of candidates was insufficient, because everyone and anyone could become a candidate.

Of course the system of balloting was changed considerably at the last moment for some unknown reason. The preferential system of balloting is probably better than the system used.

As a whole, the student cooperation was better than usual, and in addition to congratulating the students, we also wish to congratulate the president of the old Student Council who spent much time and effort in helping to make this past election a success.

Student Council

A new Student Council has recently been elected on this campus. No one has any right to complain about the election or those elected, as a good majority of the men voted last Thursday. Presumably, we should now have a good, active council.

It is our opinion that during the war, and up to the present time, the council has been altogether too much under the influence of the administration. We should now like to see the council become more active, approaching pre-war standards, and exert a more powerful influence in student government, as is its function.

The primary purpose of Student Council is to promote harmony between the student body and the administration. However, its duties should not stop there. Being made up of students, and elected by the student body, it has certain responsibilities to that body. Promoting harmony with the administration does not mean the mere carrying out of their orders. Primarily, it means working out an effective system of student government with their approval and putting it into effect.

Another of its duties should be to foster student morale. Morale and its near relative, school spirit, are now at a low ebb. The council is in a position to do much toward this end.

MUSE-INGS
By Riki Burt

I offer you these thoughts of the pain of the realization of our fellow student, R. M. Cleveland, in the hope that you will pause in your reading and muse awhile.

"We are not a happy world. Intellectually and emotionally we have lost our way. We do not know what we want, nor where we are going. So we grasp desperately at things we can get — wealth, physical comfort, amusement. We build up a structure of material luxury to supplant the voids of the intellect. We build shells around our emotional persons to keep out faults and inabilities. We console ourselves with mechanical gadgets as a homesick child plays, desperately, with toys.

"We pursue happiness in these fruitless ways when it can only be found by living with and for others so that our happiness is drawn from and shared with the others. It is hard to realize how shut in we are if we have no other purpose than self and refuse to let others know of and help to dissolve our discontent."

The Quality of Mercy

Senator Bilbo, who has shamelessly abused the Jews, recently entered Touro Infirmary, New Orleans, to undergo a serious operation.

Touro Infirmary was founded 106 years ago by Judah Touro, who was the son of a rabbi and whose father was instrumental in establishing Touro Synagogue in Newport, Rhode Island, which was recently set aside by the United States Government as a national shrine.

Under Jewish management to this day, this hospital practices no discrimination. It is for Jews and Christians alike — for friend or foe — its only concern being the practice of that quality of mercy which both the Jewish and Christian religions commend us.

"Senator Bilbo might ponder this as he lies in long-dead Judah Touro's hospital," the St. Louis Dispatch said editorially. "He might be grateful that Judah Touro was not the bigot Theodore is. For if he had been, Theodore Bilbo would not at this moment be receiving the services of one of the finest medical institutions in the South. . . Let him look about him and see in the memorial of a man who was too big for racial hatred the most eloquent rebuke to the hate-monger."

Letter to the Editor

Editor of The New Hampshire:

The editorial, "Rural Free Delivery," carried in the April 17 issue of The New Hampshire suggests that your editorial writer was misinformed regarding the proposed delivery of mail to College Road apartments.

Your editorial says that married veterans living in the College Road Apartments will be "required" to pay a fee of $1.25 for mail-boxes. No fee of any amount will be "required." Purchase of the box is optional.

Your editorial writer assumes also that a College Road resident who purchases a mailbox will be required to leave it behind him when he leaves. There is no such requirement. If a student buys a mailbox, that box is then his property and may be taken with him when he leaves.

To further clarify the issue, several other facts should be made clear.

First, the University's only interest in the question of mail deliveries on College Road is to serve the convenience of College Road residents.

Second, mail is delivered subject to postal regulations. Postal regulations require that a box of approved type be provided.

Third, the College Road apartments are the property of the Federal Public Housing Authority. The F.P.H.A. did not furnish mail-boxes.

Finally, the University, believing that most College Road residents want mail delivery at their homes, sent a letter to College Road residents informing them that an approved mailbox may be purchased through the College Bookstore. Purchase is not required by the University. Postal regulations, however, require that an acceptable box be provided by all College Road residents who want mail delivered to their door. Residents may purchase a box wherever they wish. They may even make one of their own to federal specifications. If they do not desire mail delivery, they need not purchase a box.

In the same letter, the University asked how many College Road residents desired mail delivery. This question was asked in order to supply a figure to be given to postal authorities. Obviously, postal authorities will not provide carrier service unless a sufficiently large number of residents express their intentions of complying with the postal regulation which requires that mail boxes be provided.

Tracksters Leave
For Penn Relays

By Roger C. Quimby

New Hampshire will be represented in the Penn Relays, which are being held this weekend at Philadelphia, by three members of Coach Paul C. Sweet's spring track squad.

Coach Sweet will entrain from Durham tonight with Ed Styrna, Boo Morcom, and either Don Mullen, Dick Lopes, or Burt Cram, returning Sunday night by train.

Morcom is scheduled to enter his regular three events, pole vault, high jump, and running broad jump. Styrna will probably take his turn at the hammer throw and the javelin toss. Cram, Mullen, and Lopes might be entered in discus, hammer, or dashes, in that order. Coach Sweet will make the final decision as to which one of the three he will take with him after he has watched practice this week.

New Hampshire's main adversary at the Relays will be Irving Mondschlein, National Decathlon champion from NYU, who is entered in five events, including broad jump, high jump, and hammer throw, events in which either Morcom or Styrna are entered.

Track fans at UNH will be watching the Relays with an air of expectation to see whether or not Boo Morcom will be able to better his 14 ft. 3 inch mark in the pole vault, which he made at the K. of C. Relays in Cleveland a month ago. Boo has been steadily improving to his pre-war form since last fall and the Cleveland meet was the best mark he has set so far this year.

Watchful eyes will also be on Ed Styrna to see if he can regain his powerful winning form which helped him walk away with the national hammer throw in 1942.

Cunningham Speaks
At Men's Convo

By George Haselton

Last Thursday, Bill Cunningham, noted sports writer of the Boston Herald, gave a very interesting talk that was supposed to be entitled, "Responsibilities of Citizenship." He received the invitation while watching the Braves and the Red Sox in Florida, and gave his opinions on the chances of the two Boston teams. He was more enthusiastic about the Red Sox and Dorish than the Braves and Torgeson.

After talking about the notorious Boston politics he was reminded of a notorious incident he experienced at Dartmouth. The townspeople made a law requiring all men over 21 residing in Hanover longer than six months to pay a poll tax. They paid it and proceeded to dominate the town election and pass Utopian measures. It was suggested that a boardwalk be built to No. Hampton, Mass., home of Smith College, and a subway to Lebanon, home of the bars. They also wanted a school house a mile long and a foot wide.

Finally Bill became serious and reminded the gathering how his generation had burlesqued politics and somewhere along the line, "dropped the ball."

He belittled Communism by saying that Russia is over-rated and that those b . . . couldn't lick the New York Fire Department! He called all diplomats professional liars, and proclaimed that the conditions in Russia are not good, that the majority want peace, even though being constantly lied to. He mentioned that he'd heard that ignorant diplomats had to have lessons in how to use American toilets,

White and Haller
On Mound Against
R. I. and Conn.

The Wildcat nine goes on a two day junket to encounter Rhode Island and Connecticut on Friday and Saturday in the first contests of the year. The team, composed almost entirely of lettermen, rates as one of the best in the history of the school and is seeking to repeat last year's undefeated record.

Fred White is Hank Swasey's nominee to start on the mound against a relatively unknown Rhode Island nine, and Bob Haller, who twirled for Lowell Textile before the war, is slated to start against Connecticut. The Nutmeggers lost a slugfest to Harvard a week ago and seem weakened at the plate by the ineligibility of Walt Dropo.

The infield will have Dave McCullough at first, Soc Bobotas at second, Emil Krupa at short, and Bob Francoeur starting the Rhody game and Gus DiRubio, starting against the UConns at third. Big Sam Clark will be at left, Leo Dupont at center and Art Massucco and Hal Burby will alternate between backstopping and right-fielding.

The Wildcats will have to play good ball to get by these two clubs without a loss. Last year both games with R. I. were rained out and they are anxious to see if this 'Cat squad is as good as it is supposed to be. The UConns came out on the short end of a 13 to 2 tilt last season and hope to reverse the score.

Next Tuesday the squad will tangle with Herb Gallagher's Northeastern Huskies at Boston, and will make their initial showing on Brackett Field on Thursday against Bob Haller's old team, Lowell Textile.

New Yankee Conference
Rules on Outside Sports

The following rule of the "Yankee" Conference will be effective on and after April 1, 1947:

"Except as hereinafter provided, any student on a Freshman or Varsity squad who, during the college year, has engaged in any athletic contest in that particular sport not connected with this institution shall not be permitted to participate in any inter-collegiate contest from time of the violation, and for one full year following the close of the athletic season in which the offense was committed. If the student is ineligible at the time of the violation of this rule, this penalty shall commence at the time the previous disqualification is raised. Any further violation of the rule by the same student will make him permanently ineligible.

"The college year is defined as that period of time beginning on the official registration date at the opening of the college year, and closing of the official commencement date.

"A student is not under the jurisdiction of the conference when he is not registered in a member institution."

EXCEPTIONS:

"No student who has or is participating in freshman or varsity athletics may participate in out-of-college contests except by written permission of the Director of Athletics. Such permission shall be given only for a game in which he plays as an alumnus of a high school, during a college vacation. Exceptions may be made by permission of the eligibility committee of the New England Conference of State Universities and Colleges.

"A student may engage in games during the summer vacation on a team which is not under the control of the National Baseball Commission."

Varsity Blasts JV

Last Saturday the Varsity Baseball team had its first test of the campaign and proceeded to blast the JV's to the tune of 26 to 5. With Haller and Standish blanking the Glassfordmen, the powerful aggregation was never in trouble.

Numerous errors, wind blown hits, and stolen bases helped the Swaseymen along.

"A Date With Dinah," the new Columbia album, is according to George "He should know" Montgomery, "The next best thing to a date with Dinah." Who am I to argue? The top femme ballad singer really gives her all on "I've Got You Under My Skin," "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man," and the other six selections in this grand set. All standards, these songs will improve with age and make a substantial addition to any collection.

The largest single Victor Red Seal Order since the good old days has arrived. Two hundred plus of the finest classical recordings, both twelve and ten inch, are now in stock ready for your inspection. Many have not been available for years, so be sure to check in.

An extremely well-balanced album by Victor is their "Rodgers and Hart Selections" group. Featured are Milton Berle, Betty "Call Me Mister" Garrett, Vic Damone, and Marie Greene. Top tunes from top musicals such as "Boys From Syracuse," "Garrick Gaieties," and "On Your Toes" are included. A sensational rendition of "The Lady Is A Tramp" by Miss Garrett.

Reginald Gardiner's comic monologue entitled "Trains" is presented by Decca. A very learned discourse indeed, Mr. Gardiner goes into the finer points of trains and their peculiar noises. This type of two record album is a sure-fire hit as a party livener-upper.

And for jazz fans the hot-off-the-presses album of "New Orleans Jazz" by Kid Ory's Creole Band. The Kid's tailgate trombone sparks the other seven members of his group through eight great sides composed of blues, spirituals, and plain two beat jazz. Truly authentic, these records speak of the colorful New Orleans of the Mahogany Hall days.

Pottery Instructors Achieve Distinction

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Scheier, instructors in pottery at UNH, have achieved the distinction of being among the few contemporary potters to contribute to a permanent collection in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City.

Their contribution, a red stone-ware bowl, has also appeared in the 11th annual National Ceramic Exhibition, sponsored by the Syracuse Museum of Fine Arts and the Onondaga Pottery Company, now on a nationwide tour. The Scheiers also have pieces in the Walker Art Gallery in Minneapolis, Syracuse Museum, Rochester Museum, Cincinnati Museum and the Chicago Art Institute.

Other examples of their work are now on display in a ceramic exhibit at the Hamilton Smith Library, which features a selected group of privately owned pieces of Greek, Roman, Chinese, Persian and Pre-Columbian origin, supplemented with works by several leading contemporary ceramists working in the eastern section of this country.

UNH Writers Hold Spring Reunions

The University of New Hampshire Writers' Conference will hold three reunions this spring, it was announced by Dr. Carroll S. Towle, conference chairman.

Organized as pre-conference social meetings, the gatherings will be attended in three metropolitan centers of the East by alumni and friends of the conference.

First reunion will be held at the Hotel Kenmore in Boston, April 26, the second at the Art Alliance in

The Cauldron

By Verburg and Underwood

Your reporter offers his sincere apologies for the two week lapse of this column, but next time he'll know enough to take his typewriter to the hospital with him. Things are picking up though. The Cauldron now has a co-writer to ease the burden on your practically proscolastic reporter. Now for the news.

On Sunday, April 20, a handicraft tea was held in Congreve South. The girls exhibited their handiwork which included pottery, knitting, leather work, and water colors. Among the sixty guests present were President and Mrs. Stokes and Dean Woodruff. Miss Barbara Ellis played the piano.

As their part in the Pan-Hell weekend, South held a "vic" dance Saturday, April 19.

Congreve South has set the date for their informal dance for Friday, April 25.

On April 17, the girls in Schofield welcomed their new house mother, Miss Katherine Beane, by having a tea in her honor. A bouquet of spring flowers was presented to Miss Beane.

Mrs. Geraldine Wilson has taken over her duties as the new house mother of Gibbs Hall, and is upholding the precedent set by Mrs. Adams by holding informal afternoon tea parties and promoting the sale of doughnuts on Sunday nights to raise funds for the house's recreational equipment.

Philadelphia on May 2, and the third at the Hotel Algoquin, New York, on May 3.

The conference, which has been steadily growing in prominence among nationally-known writing conclaves, will celebrate its 10th anniversary this summer at Durham on August 11-22.

Plans Laid for Blood Donations

Some time ago a group of students signed up at Hood House for the Donor's Bureau. No definite plans have been formulated until now. Dr. Walter E. Batchelder, University Physician, has announced that the following policy has been adopted.

To become a member of the Bureau a person must not have had residence either in the South Pacific or in the Mediterranean area or have had a clinical case of malaria. (Persons having had residence in the South Pacific or in the Mediterranean area are barred because of the possibility of transferring malaria. Just being in the area is enough evidence that there is a possibility of malaria and, therefore, the person is not acceptable for the Donor's Bureau.)

Your blood type on your dog tag, your immunization record, or any other document which gives your blood type is acceptable.

All those who are interested should report to the Hood House and give their blood type as soon as possible.

Date for Annual Picnic
Set by Mike and Dialers

The annual Mike and Dial picnic will be held at Mendum's Pond on Saturday, May 10, it was decided at the regular meeting last Friday. Those who would like to attend should place their names on the sign-up list to be posted on the Murkland bulletin board before April 26.

Mike and Dial currently has three scripts under production: a fifteen minute version of the "Telltale Heart;" and two half-hour scripts, "A Cue for Murder," directed by Jeanmary Durant, and one of the "New Hampshire Echoes" series, directed by Leon Stevens. These programs should be ready for transcription soon. Members of the casts are asked to watch the Murkland bulletin board for rehearsal schedules.

Composers Press
Accepts New Song

"The Abandoned Acres," a song by Prof. Robert W. Manton of the music department, was accepted April 14 for publication by the Composers Press, a music publishing house specializing in the works of contemporary composers.

Acceptance of the song for publication came almost on the eve of its performance here at the annual spring concert of organizations of the music department.

Professor Manton wrote the song in its original arrangement for an eight-part mixed chorus especially for presentation at the annual concert. This eight-part arrangement was the one accepted for publication.

However, the song has already been heard as a tenor solo in various parts of New England at recitals by Karl H. Bratton, associate professor of music here. Professor Bratton, incidentally, conducted the mixed chorus when the song received its world premiere in the eight-part arrangement here in the spring concert.

New Directors for Vets' Commissary

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Veterans Co-operative Commissary last Wednesday night, a new Board of Directors was voted in. The duty of the board is to formulate the policy which governs the commissary.

Norman Freedman is the Board's new chairman; Robert Rollins is the vice-chairman, and Phil Dooley is the Commissary Manager. This position of Commissary Manager is quite similar to the position of store manager. The newly elected treasurer is Crandall Wallenstein. The positions of Treasurer and Commissary Manager are the only two remunerative ones on the board.

Other members of the new Board are Robert Durgin, John Peterson, Leonard Wolf, Ralph Tufts and Richard Burkholder, who represents the single veterans. Norman Freedman and Robert Rollins represent Wentworth Acres; Robert Durgin and John Peterson represent Portsmouth, and Leonard Wolf and Ralph Tufts represent the veterans residing on College Road.

A vote was taken to continue the Commissary, with the realization that the Commissary must be incorporated. The Commissary has proved itself to be an asset and an essential to married veterans in particular and necessary in a marked degree to the single veterans. The prices on merchandise are extremely reasonable when compared to the retail prices of the independent stores in Durham and its environs.

Faculty Musicians
Give Joint Recital

Miss Margaret Olson and Professor Irving D. Bartley of the Music Department will appear in a joint faculty recital on April 30 at 8 o'clock in New Hampshire Hall. Mr. Donald Steele will accompany Miss Olson. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Olson attended the University of Colorado, studying there under Horace Jones. She majored in violin under Harrison Keller at the New England Conservatory of Music, receiving her Bachelor of Music degree with special honors in Contemporary Music and English Literature. Miss Olson came to the University of New Hampshire as a graduate assistant, receiving her Master of Education degree in 1945. She has studied with Mme Lizetta Kalova and Mr. Emanuel Ondricek.

Mr. Bartley is a graduate of the New England Conservatory and Syracuse University, receiving his Master of Music degree, major in piano, at the latter. Mr. Bartley is a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists. He has contributed articles to the Etude Music Magazine. His original compositions have been published by H. Flammer, Inc., Theodore Presser Company, and Art Publication Society. Professor Bartley has held positions at Baker University, Baldwin, Kansas; New Mexico Highlands University, Las Vegas, New Mexico; and Elon College, North Carolina. He is organist and director of choir at the Durham Community Church. Mr. Bartley studied organ with Henry M. Dunham and Albert Snow, and piano with Edwin Klahre, all of the New England Conservatory.

The recital is required of all students in applied music or formal music classes. There is no admission charge.

The Program follows. I. Concerto in A Minor: Allegro, Largo, Presto, Vivaldi-Nachez; Miss Olson. II. Expert Advice for Resort Operators

Operators of one of New Hampshire's largest businesses — the tourist business — will have an opportunity here on May 5 to get advice from experts on their most pressing problems.

The opportunity will come at the New Hampshire Institute for Tourist and Resort Operators, an all day conference sponsored by the General Extension Service of the University of New Hampshire in cooperation with the State Planning and Development Commission.

The 18 experts who will staff the institute will be at no loss for questions to answer and problems to solve. Already on file with them and with the State Planning and Development Commission are such questions as these:

"Where can I get help in laying out my cabin group?"

"What should I do to entertain my guests?"

"How do I train unskilled persons to run my kitchen?"

Then there are the many problems posed by veterans who jumped from the armed forces into the resort business without previous experience. They spent their nest-eggs in establishing their businesses. Many have already failed as a result of spending too much money on the wrong things, and others are anxious for professional advice to preserve them from the same fate.

Experts who will make up the staff of the institute are drawn from the University of New Hampshire, three state departments, and successful tourist and resort establishments in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

The institute is aimed primarily at cabin owners and proprietors of small inns, roadside restaurants, tourist homes and farm guest homes. Hotel owners will also be invited to the sessions.

Miss Priscilla L. Rabethge, extension specialist in recreation of the University's General Extension Service, will be chairman of the institute. Other staff members will be announced later, together with a complete program.

The program will begin at 10 a.m. and continue throughout the day. General sessions, general discussions and panel discussions are included.

Szymanowski; Tango Americain, John Alden Carpenter; Waldes-rauschen, Liszt; Golliwog's Cake Walk, Debussy; Valse in E Major, Moszkowski; Mr. Bartley.

Coming events on the Calendar of Allied Arts are as follows: April 28-May 20, Annual Exhibit of Student Work in the Arts, Hamilton Smith Library; May 5, 7 o'clock, Murkland Auditorium, Student Recital; May 9, Dance Club Production, N. H. Hall; May 14, 15, 8 o'clock, N. H. Hall, Dramatics; May 25, 8 o'clock, N. H. Hall, Advanced Recital; May 21, 22 8 o'clock, N. H. Hall, Band Concert.

Late Prof's Daughter
Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Priscilla Manning Richards of Durham, N. H. to Mr. Richard Phenix of Chocorua, N. H. has been announced by Mrs. Richards. Miss Richards is the daughter of the late Dr. Alfred Ernest Richards, head of the English Deaprtment at the University of New Hampshire for 27 years and Professor Emeritus for the six years preceding his death in 1946, and Mrs. Richards of Durham. Miss Richards graduated from Abbot Academy in 1937 and from Smith College in 1941.

Mr. Phenix served in the Army for five years, with the Signal Corps and as a Captain in the Office of Strategic Services overseas. He is the author of a book to be published this spring by William Sloane Associates. His father is Spencer Phenix, formerly with the State Department and now with the Occupation Gov't in Germany.

IRC Reactivated
After War Years

One of the university's oldest organizations, the International Relations Club, is being reactivated under the guidance of Carl J. Schneider of the Government Department and the leadership of President Roland Gray.

With the exception of two war years, the I.R.C. has been active here since 1927. The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace has sponsored the growth of one thousand such clubs in the United States and several hundred others throughout the world. These clubs aid in the instruction and enlightenment of the public by emphasizing principles of international law, conduct, and oraganization.

Meetings are now being held on the first and third Thursday of each month in the Organization Room at Commons at 7:30 p.m. All meetings are open to the public and to those who wish to become active members.
